We are Moving

When we first came to the Valley we thought we had finally found a fine country home. Now we are surrounded by subdivisions. So we started looking, and in another locality found a place that we believe will last quite a while for our quiet mail order business, so on our address will be changed. We are going into the part of the state longest settled, full of historic missions and now the site of the famous Palomar Observatory. To our many friends—we are leaving you with great regrets and much sorrow—and to our many fine customers: we ask of you to change our address from 10400 Lemona Ave., P. O. Box 565, San Fernando, Calif.,
